ARTS & ENTERTAINMENT

Scavenger Hunt: Wall Street & Old Manhattan

Saturday, July 14th

Rain Date: Saturday, July 21st

Hunt begins at 1:30 PM.

Price is $12.

Meet at the Customs House located on Bowling Green at Broadway, across from Historic Battery Park.

Dutchman and Bulls and Bears - Oh My! Back by popular demand, Watson Adventures will take you and your guests on another adventure, this time into New York's past - downtown in the Wall Street Financial District. This tailor-made hunt features history dating back to Dutch times, quirky museums and eye-popping architecture in twisty streets that constantly reveal surprising vistas. You'll investigate a crime scene at the Police Museum, look for a colonial cross-dresser in breathtaking Trinity Church, and the resting place of a losing duelist in a re-charred graveyard, search for Native American artifacts in the stunning Custom House and more. Special guest stars include George Washington, J.P. Morgan, the Statue of Liberty, the first American saint, a giant bull and a gangster named Mock Duck. You don't need to know anything about the area - all you need is a sharp mind and a good pair of shoes! The hunt will be led by Huntmaster Bret Watson of Watson Adventures, New York's leader in humorous and challenging scavenger hunts where New York is all a game.

Stephen Sondheim's Follies

Wednesday, September 19th

Pre-Show Dinner at 6:00 PM, Performance at 8:00 PM

Price is $150, includes a ticket, dinner and transportation to the theater only.

Considered by many to be one of the greatest musicals of all time, Follies takes place onstage at the once spectacular, but now crumbling Weissman Theatre, where on the eve of its demolition, ghosts from its past return and showgirls from decades ago reunite and remember - one last time. Seamlessly merging past and present, James Goldman's book has an amazing complexity of structure and depth of feeling that is complimented by Stephen Sondheim's (Williams Class of '50) beautifully constructed music and lyrics. This is the first major New York staging of Follies since its first run on Broadway in 1971. Seating is limited. Reserve today!

In his third book on the Civil War Dew traces the speeches and writings of state-appointed commissioners who traveled across the South in late 1800s raising support for secession and uncovers a stark white supremacist ideology that, he says, refutes neo-Confederate claims that slavery and race were only peripheral factors in leading to the war.
