The Williams Club is a private alumni club operating out of The Princeton Club of New York. Conveniently located in the heart of Midtown Manhattan, minutes from Grand Central Terminal, Times Square, Rockefeller Center, Fifth Avenue shopping — and the Theatre District.

The nine-story Clubhouse features 35 well-appointed hotel rooms - all recently renovated. A “home away from home”, The Williams Club offers members and guests a broad range of benefits and privileges including a complete series of cultural, social, networking, and educational programs and a fully-equipped fitness center. The Club’s 10,000 volume Library and Business Center offers a peaceful get-away from the office and provides workstations complete with computers, printers, and copiers.

Members and their guests have access to free WiFi throughout the Clubhouse, and can enjoy casual and fine dining in our two restaurants. In addition, catering and conference facilities are available for business meetings, seminars, social occasions, and special events.

Outside of the Clubhouse, members have access to more than 200 exclusive clubs worldwide and a Member Discount Program that features special arrangements with transportation services, top retailers, private golf courses, and local parking facilities.
